Re: United States v. James Bowers, Jr,
24 CR 439 (NSR)

Dear Judge Roman:

I represent James Bowers, Jr., the defendant in the above-referenced matter. Mr. Bowers was released on a personal appearance bond secured by Mr. Bowers' signature and the signature of two financially responsible adults, along with home detention and electronic monitoring. The purpose of this letter is to respectfully request a modification of the bond conditions. Specifically, it is requested that he be permitted to attend Mother's Day festivities on May 11, 2025, with his family at his brother's home in Fishkill, New York from 12:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. Mr. Bowers's brother is a surety on the bond in this case. Mr. Bowers' mother will also be present and is the other surety on the bond. Pretrial Services consents to this request and the Government has no objection if Pretrial Services is amenable to the request. If approved, Mr. Bowers will provide Pretrial Services with his brother's address.

The Court's time and consideration of this matter are greatly appreciated.
